Brilliant.

No man lives right who does not believe right.

There is no better excess in the world than the excess of gratitude.

It is the struggle and not the attainment that measures character.

Next to acquiring good friends, the best acquisition is that of good books.

Before a man can deliberately do anything wrong he has to convince himself that he has a good motive.

If our whole time was spent in amusing ourselves, we should find it more wearisome than the hardest day's work.

The man who undertakes to get rich at the expense of his conscience will not be long in finding out that he can't do it.

Why is it that when money is wanted for the church, most of the members think that somebody else ought to give it?

Our sins, like our shadows, when our day is in its glory, scarce appear. Toward our evening how great and monstrous they are.

Don't hang around and wait for somebody else to go ahead. Break your own path. Don't put off to day's work until to-morrow, in hope that it will be done for you.

How many a man, by throwing himself to the ground in despair, crushes and destroys forever a thousand flowers of hope that were ready to spring up and gladden all his pathway.

Some people have no perspective in their conscience. Their moral convictions are the same on all subjects. They are like a reader who speaks every word with equal emphasis.

No thing so much increases one's reverence for others as a great sorrow to one's self. It teaches one the depth of human nature. In happiness we are shallow, and deem others so.

A Black Woman Turning White.

From the Kansas City Star.

Mary Tiber, a negro woman who lived at Sixth and Charlotte streets, was declared insane by the county court about a year ago and sent to the county farm. She was about 25 years of age and very black. Since she has been at the farm she has changed from a black woman to a white woman. The change has been gradual and now her body and neck are perfectly white. A black band extends around the head from the chin to the top of the forehead and then meets with a perfectly white scalp. This portion of black skin is now rapidly disappearing and in a few weeks the woman will be perfectly white. She is whiter than the Caucasian people and her color is much the same as that of an Albino, without the natural look of healthy flesh. The color is a dead, dry white, like paper. Her case is considered most remarkable and has created much surprise at the poor farm, and even fear amongst the inmates. The woman is still insane and cannot talk intelligently.

State Banks of Issue.

Monroe City News.

One or two cabinet meetings have been held recently, at which the committee on banking and currency, from the house, was invited to be present. Reading the outgrowth of these meeting the News makes the following extract from the Republic dispatches.

It says among other things: President Cleveland is very earnestly in favor of the repeal of the prohibitive tax upon state banks, and he is just as earnestly opposed to anything that bears a semblance even of wildcat money. There is not much doubt now that the bill will be reported to congress and will have all the safeguards necessary to prevent a wildcat currency and still will give all the liberty necessary for legitimate banking, including banks of issue.

Secretary Carlisle has long had the idea that the currency of the United States could not settle down to a legitimate, solid, substantial basis until the war ideas were squeezed out of it. During the war the treasury became a bank of issue and the Republican politicians, mostly for selfish purposes, have kept it a bank of issue practically since. Secretary Carlisle, the old-fashioned Democrat that he is, thinks that the time has arrived when the treasury department ought to resume its old functions as a business institution solely for the people and have nothing to do with the issuing of money except to see that the money it receives for custom duties is good. There is no doubt that in his report to the regular session of congress Secretary Carlisle will make some suggestion that will start a train of thought throughout the country that may do some good.

In the meantime the members of committee on banking and currency of the house who are known to be friendly to the repeal—the unconditional repeal as it may be—of the tax on state banks are holding informal conferences. Mr. Springer is opposed to the repeal of the state bank tax, but he is in the minority in his own committee.

Yellow Creek Township Sunday-School Convention.

The Yellow Creek township Sunday-school association held its first convention, at Rothville, Aug. 29th. The meeting was called to order at 10 a. m., by the chairman, L. D. Riddell. After spending a short time in song and praise service we listened to an address of welcome by the president, which was responded to by Mr. Chas. F. Allen. The meeting then was fairly opened and the object of the convention was thoroughly placed before the people.

The next event in the order of the day was a short business meeting in which was transacted some matters of interest to the association. After the business meeting we listened to an interesting address by the county secretary, U. G. Buck—subject: "The Relation of the Sunday-school to the Township and County Work." Then we were favored by an eloquent talk by Rev. Chas. Carter, of Williamstown, Ky., more recently from Salisbury. He thoroughly stirred us up on the subject of "Sunday-school work." Then came a worthy production in the form of a paper by Mrs. C. D. Stratton—subject: "How to Feed my Lambs," or "Primary Teachers' work." Mrs. Stratton, gleaming from her large store-house of experience and from general supply of practical thought, brought forth things both new and old, and presented the subject to us in a very pleasing manner.

Having by this time enjoyed quite a mental and spiritual feast, we adjourned to meet around a table well spread with good things sufficient for all. After an hour spent in refreshment and pleasant conversation we again assembled in the church to listen to some excellent music made by the Sunday-schools.

Then came the Sunday-school reports. Only three schools report, viz: Rothville, Ebbert and Rose Hill. The two remaining schools in the township failed to have reports ready. The reports made were very good and represented good work. We were then favored with a live and spicy address by Rev. Carhart—subject: "How to Best Secure Attendance at Sunday-school." Bro. Carhart waxed warm and eloquent on his subject. This subject met with a lively discussion.

Next on program was a paper by Mrs. F. E. Vaughn on "How the Teachers Can Help the Superintendent." This was an excellent paper and was made more impressive because it came from one who has spent so many years in the work of the Master. This paper was also discussed.

Next was a paper by Rev. Harmon, of Rothville, on "The Duty of Parents to the Sunday-school." It was well treated and was productive of much good.

The program being completed we listened to closing words by A. L. Holman. We feel safe in saying that the convention was in every way a success. It awakened the Sunday-school interest in this township; it created new zeal for the work; it showed to the people that there is something to be done, and we are able to do it. We kindly advise other townships to hold conventions and arouse the Sunday-school interest.

Let's push the work in every direction and the Lord will bless our labors.

L. D. RIDEWELL, Chairman.
Mrs. OLIVE LOGSDON, Secretary.

Ceutral Work Certain.

Richmond Democrat.

Mr. Carlisle has been too busy to make any recommendations as to what shape the tariff bill should assume, but has been anxious that congress should adjourn quickly and last week it is said, he visited the capitol and had a talk with friendly senators and with Speaker Crisp and Mr. Wilson as to the practicality of bringing this to pass. A survey convinced him that all hope of making any break in the continued course of the extra and regular sessions must be abandoned.

It is now conceded that general legislation will be entered upon in the extra session and the tariff consideration must run along under all these disadvantageous circumstances.

It is understood that Mr. Carlisle now contemplates going into "retreat" for a month or so in order to bring his mind uninterruptedly to the consideration of tariff questions. The expectation of Chairman Wilson is that his committee will have a tariff bill ready for the consideration of the house by October 1, but not before.

A very urgent question which may be forced to the front at an early day is the necessity for making some provision to put money into the treasury to meet current obligations of the government. There is a deficiency of about 10 millions in sight and the revenues are running behind the expenditures to the amount of $300,000 a day. It is obvious that some method must be devised to check or meet this. The alternatives before congress seem to be limited to three. First, a new issue of government bonds; second, an income tax or some other new impost; or third, an increase of rate in one or more of the existing forms of taxation. Rigorous economy in appropriation will not suffice to meet the difficulty. The fixed and unavoidable expenditures of the government are at the present moment in excess of its income.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

In the probate court of Chariton county, Missouri: Regular term, Aug. 21, 1893. Now, at this day comes Christopher Noll, administrator of the estate of William E. Tolson, deceased, and presents his petition to the court, praying for an order for the sale of so much of the real estate of said deceased as will pay and satisfy the remaining debts due by said estate, and yet unpaid, for want of sufficient assets, accompanied by a true account of his administration, and a list of debts due to and by the deceased, and remaining unpaid, and an inventory of the real estate, and of the remaining personal estate with its appraised value, and all other assets in his hands, the whole verified by affidavit of the said administrator. On examination whereof, it is ordered that all persons interested in the estate of the said deceased, be notified that application as aforesaid has been made, and unless the contrary be shown on or before the first day of the next regular term of the probate court of Chariton county to be held in the court house, in the town of Keytesville in said county, on the second Monday in November A. D. 1893 an order will be made for the sale of the whole or so much of the real estate of said deceased, as will be sufficient for the payment of said debts, and, it is further ordered, that this order be published in some newspaper in said county for four weeks before the said term of this court.

A true copy of said order.
Witness, Thos. E. Mackay, clerk of said court, under his hand and seal of said court, at office, this 24th day of Aug. A. D. 1893.

THOS. E. MACKAY,
Clerk of probate.

MONEY TO YOU

To My Subscribers:—

A comparison of the COURIER with other esteemed contemporaries in Chariton county will convince you that as a news paper the COURIER hasn't a superior and perhaps not an equal in this county.

I am proud of the COURIER and I believe justly so.

It is my earnest desire to extend my circulation to double its present size, and this I can do if my patrons will help me.

The only trouble I find in placing the COURIER in almost every household in Chariton county is that the subscription price is $1.50 a year.

In order to overcome this obstacle I make this proposition to my subscribers:

Each subscriber who will get me one or more new subscribers at $1 a year, I will send the COURIER to for $1 instead of $1.50.

The more subscribers you get, the merrier—for the editor. Each subscriber who will send me five or more new subscribers I will send the COURIER to for one year FREE.

The COURIER is an all home-print, 6-column, 8-page paper and I cannot afford to furnish it at $1 unless I can largely increase my present circulation.

In case your subscription does not expire for some months, by sending in the name of one new subscriber accompanied by $1 in cash you will get the benefit of the $1 rate.

Of course all who do not avail themselves of this liberal offer will be expected to pay $1.50 a year.

It remains entirely with you as to whether you pay $1 or $1.50 a year for the COURIER. A great many of my patrons are even glad to get the COURIER and pay $1.50, but by doubling my circulation I can afford to send it for $1 a year, and make just as much money as I do now at $1.50.

Will you help me to increase my circulation, and by so doing save money for yourself?

Very truly yours,

C. P. VANDIVER,

Editor and Publisher COURIER.
